FASHIONABLE ATTIRE

JACKETS, CAPES, DRESS GOODS, MILLINERY.

It is our business to dress you becomingly. It matters not the price. If large experience, plenty of goods and honest prices will do it (and they certainly will), you will come to us.

A visit to our Cloak Department will convince you that we show an extremely pretty line of Jackets in all the newest and latest garments shown in our large cities.

The Capes displayed by us are of the very newest and most stylish designs.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

In Dress Goods we open many new effects not hitherto displayed, beautiful in the extreme. Prices always the lowest. We propose making this department familiar to every buyer of Dress Goods in the county.

Our SPRING MILLINERY has arrived, and consists of many novelties, which we will be pleased to show to all.

W. R. SELICK & CO.

Some Sound Sense.

YOU will keep close to the stove these days, if it's a poor one. We don't sell that kind, but have the good old honest heater, the ROUND OAK, which gives plenty of warmth with a small amount of fuel. It's a winner always. And prices! We have kept hammering away at them until they are very, very thin. Greatest chance for you! Just look in and see. The needs of the hour make a well regulated Hardware stock conspicuously necessary, and our store is a perfect "poem" in Hardware these days.

Yours truly,

Fred Bilbrow.

The terrible dynamite scare (?) in Decatur to which the Courier devoted so much space last week, proves to have been nothing more serious than the throwing of a large stone or other missile, by some roughs, and excited much less tumult there than here.

We are sorry to note 120 votes cast against the assessment of highway taxes on a money basis, to $1 for it. Good roads are one of the most potent factors in the prosperity of any town, and we had hoped our voters might at least give the new method a fair trial.

A telegram received by E. H. Hineckley on Monday morning announced the sudden death of his cousin, Irv Hineckley, at her home in Jacobsville, Mich. Not more than six weeks ago, Miss Irv, a rosy, healthy girl, was a visitor here, and the news of her death was very unexpected.

The Seventh Annual Convention of the Womans' Christian Temperance Union of Van Buren county will be held in the Baptist church at South Haven on Tuesday and Wednesday, the 12th and 13th of April. Demorest Medical Contest on the evening of the 13th. All are welcome.

Mrs. Rose Miller and Mrs. C. L. Eaton accompanied Mrs. Heckert to South Haven last week to attend the "Temple of Fame," and the ladies report a very enjoyable entertainment, and one which reflects much credit upon the ladies who planned as well as those who executed it.

The move to form a Young Men's Republican Club on Monday evening resulted in a temporary organization and the appointment of a committee to draft constitution and by-laws, and see about the renting of a hall. A discussion as to the advisability of joining the Republican League, or remaining a local organization, resulted in a decision in favor of the latter, for the present at least. The meeting then adjourned for one week.

The following are a few facts that give a good idea of the stupendous scale upon which arrangements are being made for the World's Fair—fifteen miles of railroad have been built within the grounds to move construction material, and 5,000 workmen are given employment; the buildings will cover 213 acres and the 700 acres within the grounds have a lake frontage of 24 miles; the total expenditure required is put at $26,530,453.

The Allegan Journal of April 1st contains an account of Rev. Harvey's farewell sermon at the Presbyterian church on the evening of March 27, and says that the church was not large enough to hold the congregation that gathered to hear him. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers, a white banner above the desk bearing the appropriate motto "Mizpah" signifying, "The Lord watch between me and thee while we are absent one from another."

The State Convention of Christian Endeavorers held in Grand Rapids last week was the largest religious gathering in the history of the state, over 1,000 delegates being in attendance. Great fervor and interest is said to have been manifested throughout the convention, and when the time came for appointing the next place of meeting, there was a lively scramble between Benton Harbor and Detroit for "the plum." A rising vote was so close that it was decided by ballot, which showed 400 for the Harbor against 360 for Detroit.

Another queer medical case is reported of a farmer living near South Bend who last fall followed a threshing machine and has since had a badly inflamed eye. Having recently consulted an oculist, it was found that a grain of wheat had lodged in his eye where it sprouted and forced a passage between the scalp and skull. Being removed and put into a hot bed, the plantlet grows right along as if nothing had happened, and the farmer's eye is regaining its normal condition.

The roll-call of Michigan cities that upheld the Republican banner on Monday is a long one and calculated to make our Democratic brethren rather glum. It comprises Lansing, Jackson, Muskegon, Bay City, West Bay City, Port Huron, Saginaw, Battle Creek, Kalamazoo, Marshall, Ypsilanti, Sault Ste. Marie, while even that hot-bed of Democracy, Grand Rapids, reports spendid Republican majorities. In some of these places last spring, the Democrats swept every office, and to them this result must seem like the ominous handwriting on the wall.

David Smith of Bloomingdale has moved into town.

A four-column article in last week's State Republican regarding the diphtheria at the Agricultural College, puts President Clute in an unenviable position and reveals an almost criminal negligence in dealing with the disease.

Mrs. Dr. Ferguson says she cannot recommend iodine as a good cough mixture, having had quite an experience in that line the other night, when she took some by mistake.

The closing entertainment of the Ladies' Lecture Course on Saturday evening promises to be one of the most enjoyable of any yet given. The Redpath Concert Company is a remarkable combination of artists. The Worcester, Mass., Telegram says of Miss Chamberlin, "She whistled her way into the good graces of the audience at once by her flute-like music," and the N. Y. Dramatic News speaks of Miss Christie, the violinist, as "the bright, particular star who brought down the house every time she appeared." The Grand Rapids Press says, "the humorous work of Edward P. Elliott was as good as anything seen here this season," and the Chicago Inter-Ocean pays John Francis Gilder a high compliment as an accomplished pianist. And then there's Master Cecil, a handsome child of eight summers and a natural artist with whom every man, woman and child is said to fall in love. All in all, it is an unusually versatile program.

At last it has been definitely decided that the Grange Visitor is to be issued from Lansing and edited by K. L. Butterfield, son of the secretary of the State Agricultural Society. It was not until two weeks after this decision that notification of the fact was given the retiring editor, and when the tardy announcement came, the copy for the next issue was well under way and considerable matter set up, thus placing Mr. Glidden in a very awkward position. In view of these facts and the additional one that none of the subscribers could be notified of the change until another issue, and that, therefore, all correspondence connected with the business would necessarily come to Paw Paw for the next fortnight, Mr. Glidden wrote an explanation of the case to H. H. Hinds, the gentleman selected by the executive committee to close up affairs here, supposing that he would prefer to make the best of an awkward situation and defer the removal until after the issue of April 15th. However, yesterday Mr. Hinds appeared and, though the inside of the paper was entirely completed, made an immediate removal of it, thus leaving Mr. Glidden no opportunity for any final arrangements or proper acknowledgments to the patrons who have aided in the support of the paper during his connection therewith. Inasmuch as Mr. Glidden has given eminent satisfaction in the discharge of his duties, this seems rather unceremonious treatment, besides entailing considerable extra expense and labor in getting out the next issue.

Business Brevities.

On looking through Sellick & Co.'s store we were amazed to see the many new novelties in wool and wash dress fabrics this firm displays for the first time this week, besides an elegant line of jackets and capes.

The "Maple City Home" is out with a new announcement of its cure for drunkenness, and opium and tobacco habits.

Miller, the fashionable tailor, issues an address specially to the young men this week.
